CODE OF CONDUCT AND DRESS CODE

- Students are expected to be respectful, courteous and kind towards teachers, staff, visitors and classmates.
- No gum, candy or food in class, unless there is a designated snack time. Let us know if there is a medical need. Students may bring a water bottle with a lid.
- Students please raise your hand to ask a question or share a comment or idea.
- Students may not leave the classroom without permission from the teacher.
- Hard work, discipline and a positive attitude are expected. Students are expected to work outside of class time to memorize music, lines, etc.
- While we are using the beautiful space at James Island Arts and Cultural Center, students must show respect for the facility, its staff and any of their rules.
- If there is an ongoing problem with behavior, PYC staff will consult with the parents. If the problems persist, we may decide it's best to unenroll a student. Refunds will not be given if a student is unenrolled due to behavior issues.
- Students should wear comfortable clothing to rehearsals, classes or workshops – something that they can easily move in, and don't mind getting a little dirty.
- Students are expected to enter class on time. Please allow for Charleston traffic. If you are going to miss a class or are stuck in unusual traffic, please contact the teacher or email us at palmettoyouthchoir@gmail.com.

MISC INFORMATION

- Classes that do not meet minimum enrollment are subject to cancellation.
- Class placement by ability rather than age is subject to the teacher's discretion.
- We follow Charleston County School District's school cancellations for inclement weather.
- If your child has a special need that requires a certain level of supervision or assistance, we may ask that the parent/caregiver join us in the classroom during class time (or backstage during performances) to assist as needed.
- Students are expected to participate in performances. Please mark your calendars once the dates are announced. Let us know of any known conflicts asap.
